

Terms and conditions

When you book by phone or email at Friends4action you agree to the terms and conditions below:

Customers pay for both the host or hostesses' time AND for all tickets, transportation, consumptions and meals should they occur.

Contracts and agreements between Friends4action and the client become binding as soon as the client indicates that the booking is final.

At the very beginning of the meeting between client and host or hostess, clients must fill in and sign a paper containing the legal waiver text. This full waiver text is quoted on the Internet link. If the client refuses to sign, the agreed meeting will be cancelled by Friends4action. Payments will not be returned.

Cancellations by the client must be announced by the client BOTH by 06 telephone and email in order to be valid. Cancellations made by the client more than 24 hours ahead of the appointment result in money refunded except for a E 50,- fee. Cancellations made between 12 and 24 hours ahead result in 50% of the money being refunded, with a minimum of E 50,- fee. Cancellations made less than 12 hours ahead are at full cost to the client.

Cancellations made by Friends4action will result in a full refund of any and all amounts paid.

After the initial introduction, the customer reserves the right to terminate the agreement without charge within the first 15 minutes. Equally, in exceptional cases the host or hostess may refuse cooperation without any consequences.

The Friends4action team consists of women and men available to join you for these various activities. We take your requests seriously and try to find the best possible contact to make your day wonderful. All appointments are tailor-made to fulfill your needs and requirements.

Only Dutch law is in effect. Every client is required to sign a legal waiver.

* Small print: Friends4action is an agency for social activities - not an escort service for erotic purposes. Nevertheless our hosts and hostesses are sparkling, vivacious, open-minded. Many have a background in Biodanza, which makes us open to heart-to-heart contact. We are open to communication, not an escort agency.
